DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 21 – 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The specification does not define the meets and bounds of the claim, thereby rendering the claims indefinite.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 21 - 24 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

There was no reference in the prior art search that disclosed, taught, or suggested a laminating apparatus comprising: film retaining means; film supplying means, including folding a single piece in two; film opening and closing means; and heating and pressure-bonding means. Instance (U.S. Patent No. 4675062) discloses film supplying means onto a label with a folded piece of film (Figure 1; column 3, lines 13 – 26), however the film is not considered a protecting film and does not fold around a medium as claimed. Forkert (U.S. Patent No. 6159327) discloses conventional means of conveying a medium, cutting out means for cutting out a region of the medium; positioning means, protecting film supplying means, and heating and pressure-bonding means (Figure 11; column 15, lines 4 – 34), however Forkert does not disclose film retaining means for supplying a single piece from among plural pieces of protecting film and for folding said single piece in two, as well as providing means for folding said protecting film around a medium as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
